HOW TO USE THE LECTIONARY

OUR PURPOSE

The Lectionary/Te Maramataka is produced each year to help meet the worship needs of the Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia. It provides the information you need to plan the Eucharist or other services and to say the Daily Offices on a regular basis. It puts in convenient form many of the provisions of The New Zealand Prayer Book/He Karakia Mihinare o Aotearoa (ANZPB/HKMOA), and introduces elements from other sources which we believe will be of benefit to the Church.

HOW TO USE THE LECTIONARY

The Lectionary gives details of the full range of possibilities offered by the liturgical calendar. It offers many choices to suit the needs of individuals and parishes or groups who meet to pray. For each day we indicate the day's special character. There is reference to the season and to the character of the day.

If it is a feast or holy day that is indicated in bold type and by the date being shaded. Other commemorations are indicated in ordinary type. The smaller letter(s) under the date refer to the day's recommended colour. Further details are given later.

It is customary in the Eucharist to add special words to the Great Thanksgiving when it is desired to emphasise the special character of the season or day. These words (known as Variation) are found in ANZPB/HKMOA. Further details are given later.

It is important to bear in mind that a lectionary is not so much a daily Bible reading scheme as a provision for reading the Scriptures in the course of the daily round of worship of the Church. Thus, most (but not all) of the Bible is read.

The readings set forth here are from The Christian Year: Calendar, Lectionary and Collects (CLC), published by the Church of England. It is based on the principle of consecutive reading (lectio continua) interrupted only by significant days. The books are allocated according to the shape of the Christian year, e.g. Isaiah in Advent, the Pentateuch in Lent and Eastertide, and Revelation in Advent and Eastertide.

THE LECTIONARY CAN HELP YOU FIND THE CORRECT READINGS

1st column

On Sundays and other special days (usually those where the date is shaded) the readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) which is a 3-year cycle used in many churches of differing traditions throughout the world. Its use is authorised by General Synod and it is a Formulary of this Church.

One feature is its use of a particular gospel for the whole year. 2005-2006 is Year B and the Gospel readings are mostly from Mark.

Two alternatives (for the Psalm and OT readings) are provided for the Sundays after Trinity Sunday. You should choose one of these options and remain with it throughout the period.

Continuous – offers a semi-continuous reading of the Old Testament but allows that reading and the psalm to stand independently of the other readings. This allows for preaching on the OT in its own right, just as the Gospel readings allow for consistent preaching from a particular gospel throughout the year.

Related – relates the Old Testament reading and the psalm to the Gospel reading of the day.

For economy of space, RCL material for these Sundays is spread over the 1st and 2nd columns.

CLC is an adaptation of the Revised Common Lectionary for use in the Church of England. Material from this source has been included where provision has not been made in RCL or in ANZPB/HKMOA.

CWL refers to material from the Common Worship Lectionary of the Church of England.

On other days the readings are from the Daily Eucharistic Lectionary (DEL) suitable for weekday celebrations of Holy Communion when no other provision is made or when you decide not to use the commemoration of the day. These readings could also be used for a single daily office, if desired.

2nd column

FAS (For All the Saints) refers to material provided for each commemoration listed in the Calendar in ANZPB/HKMOA. This column also provides a limited range of other material relevant to celebrations of the Eucharist.

3rd column

On Sundays and other special days psalms and readings are provided under the heading Other Readings: Morning. These are related to RCL, but the readings are shorter and are intended for public worship where a third set of readings is required.

It is most appropriate as a morning office. It is not suitable for use in the Eucharist, as a Gospel reading is not always provided.

On other days psalms and readings are provided under the heading 1st Office and are suitable for use at a daily recitation of the Office especially where there is a regular congregation. These readings are usually in sequence.

They are most likely to be used for a morning office.

4th column

On Sundays and other special days psalms and readings are provided under the heading Other Readings: Evening. These are intended for a second main service. This may be an appropriate option for those who wish to have a Sunday afternoon or evening service, as they make provision for those who wish to have greater variety during the day. It assumes that the RCL material will have been used in morning worship.

A Gospel reading is always provided so that it can be used in the Eucharist. It is also available for those who wish to use it for an evening office.

On other days psalms and readings are provided under the heading 2nd Office and are suitable for use at a daily recitation of the Office perhaps with an occasional congregation, or at an occasional office or time of prayer. These readings are not usually in daily sequence. They are most likely to be used for Evening Prayer, but can also be used as an alternative eucharistic lectionary. A suitable psalm and Gospel reading (in italics) are provided when the two lessons provided do not include a Gospel passage. For those who wish to say a single office, there are thus several options but it is recommended that you use the psalm listed under DP (Daily Prayer).

Celebrating Common Prayer

Those who use Celebrating Common Prayer: A Version for Aotearoa, New Zealand, and Polynesia, received by General Synod, will still be able to make use of The Lectionary, especially in relation to choosing the readings.

CCP follows a pattern relating to seasons by which each day of the week has a flavour of its own corresponding to a church season (e.g. Friday in relation to the Passion). It follows a 7-week cycle. Those using CCP will probably wish to use the psalter provided in that book.

The reference in the box at the beginning of each week of this Lectionary indicates the Form or Week to be used. e.g. Form 4 – Christmastide; Form 5 – Epiphanytide, and in “Ordinary time” Week 1, Week 2, Week 3, etc.

THE LECTIONARY CAN HELP YOU TO SELECT THE RIGHT COLLECT

Collects are provided in a number of resources:

The collects in ANZPB/HKMOA relate to the 2-year series, and do not usually relate to other sets of readings. Using these with RCL will frequently result in a mismatch.

If you use the 3-year series you will need to go elsewhere.

Those who use RCL are referred to the collects in Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (Consultation on Common Texts, who originally produced the RCL).

Collects in A Prayer Book for Australia have been reprinted in New Zealand for each of the three years of the cycle. Published by DEFT, they are available from the Resource Centre, Diocese of Auckland, PO Box 37 242, Parnell, Auckland 1033.

FAS. Collects for each commemoration and other days and seasons are included in For All the Saints.

A common practice is to use the collect for Sunday during the whole week from the “first Evensong” (on the Saturday night before) until the following Saturday morning. When other provision is made there is reference to it in The Lectionary. It is common also to add the collect for the day’s commemoration.

When it falls on a Sunday or major feast day, it usually lapses. Full details of the readings for the days so relegated are set out in the Appendix.

THE PSALMS

Morning and Evening Prayer

Psalm cycles are provided for use at Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer which for large tracts of the year provide a consecutive reading of the psalter, and for several 'seasonal' psalms with a particular emphasis appropriately repeated.

Single daily office

An alternative cycle (indicated as DP) for the whole year is provided for those who prefer to use a single daily office.

WHAT IS THE RIGHT COLOUR FOR THE DAY?

The colours suggested for each day are shown in the left hand column under the date. They are not mandatory but reflect common practice in most parishes. Traditional or local uses may be followed where established. Please refer to the Liturgical Colours section on a later page.

The abbreviations mean: W for white, R for red, V for violet, and G for green. When, e.g. Vw is shown, that means that V (the colour for the season) may be used, but if the commemoration for the day is observed, it may be appropriate to use white.

If two colours are indicated, one under the other; that suggests that the second colour may be used in the evening. This is most commonly the case on the day before a major feast. For further details refer to a later section.

THE LECTIONARY CAN HELP YOU TO PLAN SPECIAL OCCASIONS

Throughout the year there are many special occasions and seasons. These are often referred to in The Lectionary and it is suggested that you refer to the Special Occasions section on later pages.

THE LECTIONARY PROVIDES A LOT OF OTHER INFORMATION

Each day has a "flavour" of its own. Worship in the Eucharist can be enhanced if you insert seasonal material. The Great Thanksgiving for each Eucharistic service in the Prayer Book provides seasonal variations. A suggested variation is indicated each day. e.g. Var: Easter, Saint suggests that you use the variations for Easter (e.g. p.432), and for the Feasts of Saints (e.g. p.435). Take time to make sure these are inserted at the right place.

As each season approaches, there is reference to seasonal Sentences, Prayers and Readings.

It provides a calendar for the 13 months from the beginning of the church year to the end of the following calendar year. A 2007 Calendar is also included.

It gives details of all holidays and days of significance in nations within this Church and to other days of significance, shown in upper case in [closed brackets].

It gives details of New Zealand state school terms and holidays.

It provides a list of all Bishops in this Church, including those who have retired, with their dates of episcopal ordination/consecration.

WHERE DOES THIS MATERIAL COME FROM?

New Zealand

A New Zealand Prayer Book/He Karakia Mihinare o Aotearoa (1989). Note that it is anticipated that General Synod 2004 will confirm new provisions to regulate liturgical observances.

For All the Saints (revised edition 1996): (copyright: The Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia) provides sentences, collects, psalms, readings and background material relating to each commemoration provided for in the Calendar (indicated by FAS). (Available from General Synod Office or a church bookshop).

Celebrating Common Prayer: A Version for Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia (Common Life Liturgical Commission) is an adaptation of CCP and Daily Office SSF.

Australia

A Prayer Book for Australia (Broughton Books, 1995) provides sentences and collects for Sundays and other days relating to the RCL in each of the three years of the cycle.

England

The Revised Common Lectionary (Canterbury Press, 1992) (copyright 1992 Consultation on Common Texts) provides the readings for the 3-year RCL series. More recent publications have made adaptations to RCL. These include:

The Christian Year: Calendar, Lectionary and Collects (Church House Publishing, 1997) (Copyright: The Central Board of Finance of the Church of England), from which the alternative readings for Sundays and major feast days (shown under Other Readings: Morning and Evening) come.

Common Worship: The Lectionary (Church House Publishing, London, 2000) (Copyright: The Archbishops' Council, 2000) is the source of the daily lessons. We acknowledge the permission granted for the use of this material in The Lectionary.

Other material of significance is included in publications like Lent, Holy Week and Easter; The Promise of His Glory (for the season from All Saints to Candlemas); and Enriching the Christian Year (relating to most of the seasons) which offer creative liturgical resources in the Anglican tradition.

New Patterns of Worship (Church House Publishing, 2002) is a liturgical resource containing seasonal and thematic introductions, prayers, templates, and sample services.

Other

Let us Pray: Intercessions following the Revised Common Lectionary, Janet Nelson (Harper Collins, Australia, 1999).

Living Stones, Prayers of Intercessions, an all-age resource for the Revised Common Lectionary, Susan Sayers (Kevin Mayhew, 1998), 3 volumes Year A, Year B, Year C.

Lord for all Seasons (Canterbury Press, 1998) provides meditative prayers on the 3-year lectionary readings.

LIVING LITURGY by Labora A new Liturgical Resource for the Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand, and Polynesia

The culmination of years of research and development commissioned by the Common Life Liturgical Commission of this Church, Living Liturgy is a custom-made programme for those who plan worship in the Anglican Church.

It includes:

- Service planning facilities
- Every prayer, collect, service from A New Zealand Prayer Book/He Karakia Mihinare o Aotearoa

DURING THE SEASON OF EASTER

In RCL during season of Easter, the Lesson is normally taken from Acts (and not from OT). Care should be taken when announcing the reading. However an alternative OT reading is provided and is indicated in [square brackets]. For Sentences, Prayers and Blessings for Eastertide, refer to ANZPB/HKMOA, (p.536)

NOVEMBER 2006

ALL SAINTS-TIDE

For a Blessing for All Saints', refer to ANZPB/HKOA, p 544.

Provision is made for a number of options during All Saints-tide: All Saints' Day may be celebrated on November 1; All Saints' Sunday may be celebrated on November 5; All Saints' may be celebrated on November 5, with a secondary celebration on November 1.

The period between All Saints' Day and the 1st Sunday in Advent is observed as a time to celebrate and reflect upon the reign of Christ in earth and heaven.

PRECEDENCE IN LITURGICAL OBSERVANCE

General Synod 2004 approved new provisions for precedence in liturgical observance. The main provisions are set out in this section.

Sundays / Ngā Rātapu

All Sundays celebrate the paschal mystery of the death and resurrection of the Lord. Nevertheless, they also reflect the character of the seasons in which they are set.

Principal Feasts / Ngā Rā Hākari

The following Principal Feasts are to be observed: Christmas Day, The Naming of Jesus, The Epiphany, The Baptism of Christ, The Presentation of Jesus in the Temple, The Annunciation of our Saviour to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Easter Day, Ascension Day, The Day of Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, The Transfiguration of the Beloved Son, and All Saints' Day.

These are indicated in the Lectionary by the use of bold capitals. On these days the Holy Communion is normally celebrated. These days are not normally displaced by any other celebration except in accord with the guidelines provided by General Synod as indicated in the Lectionary. Except for Christmas Day and Easter Day (each of which has an Eve, with its own collect etc) the celebration of each Principal Feast begins with Evening Prayer on the day before the feast, and the collect at that office is that of the feast.

Other Principal Holy Days / Ētahi atu Rā Tapu

The following Principal Holy Days are to be observed: Ash Wednesday, Maundy Thursday and Good Friday.

These are also indicated in bold capitals.

These days should not be displaced by any other celebration.

Eastertide / Te Wā o te Aranga

The paschal character of the Great Fifty Days of Eastertide (from Easter Day to the Day of Pentecost) should be celebrated throughout the season and not displaced by other celebrations.

Except for a patronal or dedication festival, no festival may displace the celebration of Sunday as a memorial of the resurrection, and no saint's day may be celebrated in Easter Week.

The nine days after Ascension Day until Pentecost may be used as days of prayer and preparation to celebrate the outpouring of the Spirit.

Festivals/Ngā Rā Whakamaharatanga o te hunga tapu i ngā Karaipiture

Provision is made for a number of Festivals to be observed and these are indicated in bold lower case.

These days are not usually displaced and for each day there is full liturgical provision for the Holy Communion and for Morning and Evening Prayer. Provision is also made for a first Evening Prayer on the day before the festival where this is required.

Festivals falling on a Sunday may be kept on that day or transferred to the Monday or next suitable weekday and an appropriate indication is given in The Lectionary.

Local celebrations /Ngā Rā

Whakamaharatanga o ia Rohe

Patronal festival

The celebration of the patron saint or the title of a church is kept either as a festival or as a principal feast.

For a Patronal Festival (e.g. St John, All Saints, etc) or Feast of Title (e.g. Holy Trinity), reference should be made to the appropriate day in the Church year.

Dedication Festival

The Dedication Festival of a church is the anniversary of the date of its dedication or consecration. This is kept either as a festival or as a principal feast.

If the date is unknown, it may be celebrated on the first Sunday in October, or on the last Sunday after Pentecost, or on a suitable date chosen locally. Please refer to the entry on the first Sunday of October for suitable readings at the Eucharist. See also FAS p.508.

When kept as a principal feast, the patronal festival may be transferred to the nearest Sunday unless that day is already a principal feast or one of the following days: the 1st Sunday of Advent, the Baptism of Christ, the 1st Sunday in Lent, the 5th Sunday in Lent or Palm Sunday.

Anniversary

The following psalms and readings may be suitable for the Anniversary of a parish: Psalms: 42, 43, 84, 122; Lesson: Gen 28:10-17, 1 Kgs 8:22-30, 1 Chron 29:6-19; Epistle: 1 Pet 2:1-5,9-10; Gospel: Matt 21:12-16, John 20:19-31. Reference may also be made to the readings appointed for the feast of the Builders of the Church (September 1).

Harvest Thanksgiving

Harvest Thanksgiving may be celebrated on a Sunday and may replace the propers for that day provided it does not supersede any principal feast or festival.

The full Proper including Collects is set out in For all the Saints (p.488). The psalms and readings are:

Psalms: 65:1 (2-7)-14; 67; 104:13-29; 148; Lesson: Deut 8:1-10; or 24:19-22; or 26:1-11; Epistle: Acts 14:13-17 or 2 Cor 9:6-end; Gospel: John 6:27-35 or John 4:31-38.

Lesser festivals / Ētahi atu Rā Hākari

Lesser festivals (listed in the calendar in ANZPB/HKMOA), are observed at the level appropriate to a particular church. Each is provided with a collect, psalm and readings, which may supersede the collect of the week and the daily eucharistic lectionary. The daily psalms at the daily offices are not usually superseded by those for lesser festivals, but at the minister's discretion psalms and readings for the Holy Communion may be used in the daily offices. The minister may be selective in the lesser festivals that are observed, and may also keep some or all of them as 'commemorations'. When a lesser festival falls on a principal feast or holy day or on a festival, its celebration is normally omitted for that year, but, where there is sufficient reason, it may at the discretion of the minister, be celebrated on the nearest available day.

Commemorations / Ētahi atu Rā Whakamaharatanga

Commemorations, which are listed in the calendar, are made by a mention in prayers of intercession and thanksgiving. They are not provided with a collect, psalm and readings and do not replace the usual weekday provision at the Holy Communion or the daily offices.

The minister may be selective in the commemorations that are made.

A commemoration may be observed as a lesser festival, with liturgical provision from the Common of the Saints (printed later).

Days of Self-examination and Special Devotion / Ngā rā e whakaaro ai te tangata ki a ia anō me ngā inoi pūmau.

The weekdays of Lent and every Friday in the year are days of self-examination and special devotion.

The exceptions are all principal feasts and festivals outside Lent, and Fridays from Easter Day to Pentecost.

These days are all indicated in the Lectionary.

The eves of principal feasts are also appropriately kept as days of self-examination and special devotion in preparation for the feast.

ANZPB/HKMOA provides for vigils or preparation for certain major feasts. These days are indicated. The standard readings for vigils are set out on the days in question.

Days of Prayer for the Ministry of the Church and Ordinands [Ember Days] / Ngā rā inoi mo te mahi minita i roto i te Hāhi me te hunga i karangatia hei minita

There are two occasions in the year when the Church is encouraged to pray for the ministry of the Church. These are: (a) weekdays following the Day of Pentecost; (b) the week preceding St Andrew's Day. Eucharistic readings are provided and are shown at the beginning of each of these seasons. Days of Prayer for the Ministry of the Church and Ordinands (Ember Days) should be kept, under the bishop's directions, in the week before an ordination as days of prayer for those to be ordained. Ember days may also be kept even when there is no ordination in the episcopal unit as more general days of prayer for those who serve the Church in its various ministries, both ordained and lay, and for vocations. For All the Saints provides a Proper with two sets of Collects: (a) for Deacons, Priests and those to be ordained; and (b) for lay ministers with particular ministries in the Church.

A New Beginning in Ministry

Reference should also be made to the material provided in For All the Saints for A New Beginning in Ministry (p.503). This is especially suitable in recognising a new ministry in a parish or other setting.

Psalms: 15; 95:1-7; Lesson: Numbers 11:16,17,24-29; Epistle: Ephesians 4:7-16; Gospel: Luke 12:35-44

Days of Prayer for Industry, Science and Technology / Ngā inoi mo ngā wāhi mahi, taha taiao, pūtaiao taha tangata

These are days in the month of May and provide an opportunity for prayers to be offered for God's guidance for those involved in Industry, Science and Technology.

Days of Prayer for the Care of Creation [Rogation Days] / Ngā rā inoi kia tiakina ngā mea katoa i hanga

These days on either side of the commemoration of St Francis of Assisi (October 4) provide opportunities for prayer to be offered for God's blessing on the fruits and creatures of the earth, and the stewardship of the environment. The readings are set out in October. Collects are in FAS p.511.

Ordinary Time / He wā anō

Ordinary time is the period after the Feast of the Presentation of Christ until Shrove Tuesday; and from the day after the feast of Pentecost until the day before the first Sunday of Advent. During ordinary time, there is no seasonal emphasis, except that the period between All Saints' Day and the First Sunday of Advent is observed as a time to celebrate and reflect upon the reign of Christ in earth and heaven.

Thanksgiving for Holy Communion

United Nations Day October 24

Aotearoa Sunday Sunday before Advent

In addition other days are designated but no material is provided in For all the Saints:

The Feast of Christ in All Creation, on the last two Sundays before Advent, and/or A Spring Festival of Praise to the Creator, during the spring season.

Other special Sundays

Anglican Communion Sunday on the Sunday in January following the feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

AAW Sunday 1st Sunday in February.

Refugee Sunday 1st Sunday in July.

Tikanga Youth Sunday Sunday nearest October 19, Tarore of Waharoa.

Alternative dates

Several feasts have been given an alternative date: St Thomas: July 3 or Dec 21; St Stephen: Aug 3 or Dec 26; St John: May 6 or Dec 27; Holy Innocents: Feb 16 or Dec 28; St Matthias: May 14 or Feb 24; Visitation: May 31 or July 2. Details of readings are provided only on the principal date.

Regional Commemorations

Six Regional Commemorations are provided for the Saints and Martyrs of Africa (February 20), The Americas (April 8), Europe (July 30), The Pacific (September 7), Asia (October 6), the Anglican Communion (November 8).

Reference should be made to the daily entry for the readings and to For All the Saints for full Propers including collects.

Feasts and commemorations transferred or not observed

Certain feasts and commemorations are transferred to another day or are not to be observed this year. During Holy Week and Easter Week, it is customary to suspend all other commemorations. On Sundays, emphasis is given to the day itself rather than to the commemoration of certain individuals. The necessary references are made on each of the days involved. Details of the psalms and readings for these days are shown in the Appendix.

COMMON OF THE SAINTS

Although each commemoration listed in ANZPB/HKMOA has a full Proper including collects in For All the Saints, for those not listed (e.g. diocesan, tribal, local and other commemorations) the relevant Common of the Saints (pp 680-7) may be helpful.

LITURGICAL COLOURS

The colours suggested are not mandatory and traditional or local uses may be followed where established. Colours shown here are those likely to be used in most parishes. The suggested colour for the day is shown at the left of each day's entry under the date. The colours for a Sunday or major feast or holy day are shown with a capital letter. The colours for lesser holy days are indicated in lower case. The colour for a particular service should reflect the predominant theme. If the collect, readings, etc on a lesser festival are those of the saint, then either red (for a martyr) or white is used; otherwise, the colour of the season is retained. The colour for a 1st Evensong is shown below the colour for the day.

W (White) is the colour for the festal periods

- from Christmas Day to the Presentation and
- from Easter Day to Ascension Day
- Trinity Sunday
- Festivals of Our Lord and the Blessed Virgin Mary
- All Saints' Day
- Festivals of those saints not venerated as martyrs
- The Feast of Dedication of a church
- At Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday
- Thanksgiving for Holy Communion and Holy Baptism

It is used for Marriages

It is used for Baptisms.

It may be used in preference to violet or black for Funerals and should be used at the Funeral of a Child.

R (Red) is used:

- During Holy Week (except for Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday)
- From the Friday after Ascension Day to the Feast of Pentecost
- Feasts of those saints venerated as martyrs.

It may be used between All Saints' Day and the eve of the First Sunday of Advent (except where other provision is made). This is indicated in brackets [R] during this period.

It is appropriate for any services which focus on the gift of the Holy Spirit, and is therefore suitable for Confirmation and Ordination.

V (Violet) is the colour for:

- Advent
- From Ash Wednesday until the day before Palm Sunday.

It may be used for Funerals and for Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, although either black or white may be preferred.

A Lent array of unbleached linen is sometimes used as an alternative to violet, but only from Ash Wednesday until the day before Palm Sunday.

G (Green) is used

- from the day after the Presentation until Shrove Tuesday
 - from the day after Pentecost until the eve of All Saints' Day,
- except when other provision is made.

Other practices

which can be noted are:

- Removal of coloured hangings on Good Friday and Easter Eve.
- The use of Gold for feasts of our Lord and of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
- The use of Blue for the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Angels.

The English sequence

Where a parish uses the "English sequence", the following suggestions may be helpful:

- W will mean the 'Best' or White or Gold for Feasts of our Lord and of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Yellow for Birth of St John Baptist, Mary Magdalene, saints who are not martyrs.
- V will mean: Violet (rather than Purple) or Blue (which is liturgically the same as Purple) for Advent, Septuagesima to Shrove Tuesday, Vigils, Ember days, Rogation days.
- Lenten colour (resembling unbleached linen) from Ash Wednesday to Refreshment Sunday.
- Passiontide Red (a deep blood red) from Passion Sunday to Maundy Thursday.
