

Statute 770

THE FINANCE STATUTE, 2022

The General Synod / te Hīnota Whānui enacts as follows:

1. Title. The title of this Statute is “The Finance Statute 2022”.
2. Purpose
 - 2.1 The purpose of this Statute is to make financial provision for the common life activities of this Three Tikanga Church, being
 - (a) an adjusted provision for the calendar year 2022, and
 - (b) new provisions for each of the calendar years 2023 and 2024.
 - 2.2 The items provided by General Synod are identified in three Tables,
 - (i) the Table for Part A draws on funds made available from certain trusts and is limited to a number of Commissions and Committees which have been created by General Synod and have a direct responsibility to it.
 - (ii) the Table for Part B draws mainly on funds contributed by the Diocese of Polynesia, Te Pīhopatanga o Aotearoa, and the Dioceses in New Zealand, and is also available for more general purposes.
 - (iii) the Table for Part C draws on funds made available from certain trusts, and on funds contributed by the Diocese of Polynesia, Te Pīhopatanga o Aotearoa, and the Dioceses in New Zealand, and also from cost recoveries if any.
3. Expenditure authorised
 - 3.1 The General Secretary may, in each of the calendar years 2022, 2023 and 2024 respectively; make payments for the purposes identified in the column headed “Item” in the Tables.
 - 3.2 Such payments must not exceed, in each of those years, the corresponding amounts shown in the columns headed “2022,” “2023” and “2024” respectively (the “maximum amounts”).
 - 3.3 The purposes and maximum amounts may be altered by reallocations made under section 6.
4. Changes Confirmed. Where in the Tables the purposes and maximum and minimum amounts relating to the year 2022, differ from those provided in the Finance Statute 2020, the changes are confirmed.¹
5. Funds carried forward. The Standing Committee of the General Synod / te Hīnota Whānui may carry forward unallocated funds (including unspent and surplus funds) in each of the years 2022, 2023 and 2024, in order to meet any item of the expenditure in the corresponding Part in the following or any subsequent year.

¹ Explanatory note. Standing Committee was empowered to make reallocations by the Finance Statute 2018.

6. Reallocations. The Standing Committee, in consultation with the Distribution Advisory Committee, may make such further re-allocation of funds as may be necessary during 2022, 2023 and 2024.

PART A: INCOME FROM TRUST FUNDS

7. Trustee Distributions. Under The General Church Trust Statute 1928, one purpose of the Trust is to defray the costs of meetings of Synods, like the General Synod, and of visitations of Bishops, like the Archbishops. The Trustees of the General Church Trust Board are therefore directed to pay the General Synod / te Hīnota Whānui the sum of $1,322,000, for the 2022 General Synod/ te Hinota Whanui Meeting; $1,200,000 in 2023; and $1,372,000 in 2024, in equal monthly payments for each year²

8. Sources of revenue. The General Secretary may draw on the following sources to meet the provisions made in the Table for this Part:

- (a) the trustee distributions referred to in section 7;
- (b) interest received from the investment of funds received for expenditure under Part A;
- (c) income from the C W Wakefield Primacy Endowment;
- (d) Part A funds carried forward under section 5;
- (e) income from any other trust or source.

The total expected amount of revenue for the two years 2023 and 2024 (excluding funds carried forward) is $2,632,000.

- 11. Sources of revenue. The General Secretary may draw on the following sources to meet the disbursements referred to in the Table to this Part:
- the contributions referred to in section 9;
 - interest received from the investment of funds received for expenditure under Part B;
 - funds shown as transferred from Part A to Part B in the Tables;
 - Part B funds carried forward under section 5;
 - any additional funds received by the General Synod/ te Hīnota Whānui not designated for the expenditure approved under Part A.
- 12. Return of contributions. If there are unexpended funds, or there is otherwise a surplus of funds at the end of 2022, the Standing Committee may, instead of carrying the surplus forward, return any surplus funds held at the end of 2022 to the respective contributors on a rateable basis.
- 13. Shortfall in revenue. The General Secretary may make payments only when sufficient money is available from the sources referred to in section 11. If in the opinion of the General Secretary sufficient money is not available, then payments will be reduced or not made at all. Nothing in section 3 contradicts this section.
- 14. Precautionary measures.
- The Standing Committee must keep under review the expenditure of each budgetary item in Part B and is authorised to order the cessation of work in respect of that item if the provision of the statute for that item is likely to be overspent.
 - The Standing Committee allocates to each commission, committee and conference funded under Part B a portion of the allocation in this Statute within which it must operate. No commission, committee or conference shall exceed that limit without the prior authorisation of Standing Committee.

16. The Standing Committee in consultation with the Distribution Advisory Committee may make any further re-allocation of funds as may be necessary or desirable in 2022, 2023 and 2024 in Part B:

16.1 The Standing Committee is authorised to carry forward any unexpended sums from 2022, 2023 and 2024 or alternatively to return any unexpended funds to the contributor at the end of 2022.

PART C: INCOME FOR SPECIFIC PURPOSES (Ministry Standards Office)

17. WHEREAS there were proposals agreed by the General Synod / Te Hīnota Whānui 2020 to establish an office for Ministry Standards. It is therefore desirable to make financial provision for the implementation of such a decision should it be made.

18. Trustee Distributions. Under The General Church Trust Statute 1928, one purpose of the Trust is to support the Bishops in their various roles, including their Licensing role. The Trustees of the General Church Trust are therefore directed to pay the General Synod / te Hīnota Whānui the sum of $100,000 in the Board the 2022 year.

- 19. Contributions. The several Dioceses in Aotearoa New Zealand, the Diocese of Polynesia and Te Pihopatanga o Aotearoa may make voluntary contributions toward supporting this part of the Statute if called upon by the Standing Committee to do so. Such contributions shall be payable by monthly instalments not later than the last day of each month. The 2022 contribution, if any, shall commence in July 2022, or such other time as maybe determined by the Standing Committee.
- 20. Quotas/Levies. The Standing Committee is hereby authorised to fix a charge upon each of the several Dioceses in Aotearoa New Zealand, the Diocese of Polynesia and Te Pihopatanga o Aotearoa to cover the costs of the Ministry Standards Office should the grants from Trusts and contributions from the said Dioceses and Te Pihopatanga be insufficient to cover the costs of the Office.
- 20.1 The basis of any such Quota/levy shall be a fixed sum for each Licence and Permissions to Officiate issued to persons ministering and living in Aotearoa New Zealand.
- 21. Cost Recovery. With the concurrence of Standing Committee, the Ministry Standards Office is authorised, to recover its costs from any parties to any enquiry or proceedings that the Office becomes involved in.
- 22. Allocation. The amounts payable by each contributor for each of those years is shown in the columns headed "2022," "2023," "2024" respectively in the Table for this Part.
